Commissioner's Corner

It might not feel like it but spring is finally here. We have already started to see a rise in weekend population even with the unsettled weather! This month is the Flaming Gorge Fishing Derby and our population will really swell for that. Remember that each one of us who interacts with our visitors can leave an impression that will make them want to either return or leave with a bad taste in their mouth. Please be tolerant (within reason!) and helpful in any way you can.

We are going to be starting a Farmer's Market this year. This market will be for produce and non-produce items. This will be a great undertaking for the community to support. A grant is being applied for that can help grow this program in future years. If the grant is received, no matching funds will be required. Money would be available for building capacity, education and technical assistance. Please call Commissioner Perry (784-3218 x133) if you would like to discuss what opportunity this could mean to you. PICTURED BELOW: The Commission recognized Stewart Leith for his many years of service as a volunteer for the county.

National Small Business Week May 1st - 7th, 2016

Every year since 1963, the President of the United States has issued a proclamation announcing

National Small Business Week, which recognizes the critical contributions of America's entrepreneurs and small business owners. This year's theme will be "Dream Big, Start Small."

More than half of Americans either own or work for a small business, and they create about two out of every three new jobs in the U.S. each year.

As part of National Small Business Week, the U.S. Small Business Administration takes the opportunity to highlight the impact of outstanding entrepreneurs, small business owners, and others from all 50 states and U.S. territories. Every day, they're working to grow small businesses, create 21st century jobs, drive innovation, and increase America's global competitiveness.

For more information watch the Chamber Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/Flaming-Gorge-Chamber-Meetings-Trainings-393000970839411/>.

RECYCLING COALITION

The members of the Recycling Coalition have been getting inquiries regarding recycling and are interested in seeing the program resume. A small amount of grant money is available, so the new idea is to get an enclosed trailer to store and transport recycled materials to Green River. The emphasis will be on cardboard and maybe some plastics. We are looking for a trustworthy but inexpensive trailer. If you are aware of one that is or soon will be available or would like to donate to the project, please contact Brian Raymond at 435-784-3218 ext. 134.

DAGGETT COUNTY WEED CONTROL

RUSSIAN KNAPWEED

Centaurea repens

BACKGROUND: Russian knapweed is native to Eurasia. It infests rangelands, field edges, pasture, roadsides and other disturbed soils. Knapweeds release chemical substances into the soil that inhibit the growth of competing vegetation. It can cause "Chewing disease" in horses that consume it.

DESCRIPTION: A perennial, Russian knapweed grows 2 to 3 feet tall. Roots may go 8 feet deep or more. Basal leaves are lobed and are 2 to 4 inches in length. It has pinkish flowers. Flower bracts have membranous cream-colored tips. Bloom is early summer through late summer.

DYER'S WOAD

Isatis tinctoria

BACKGROUND: Dyer's Woad was introduced from Europe for production of textile dyes. It thrives in waste areas; gravel pits, road sides, pastures, field edges and disturbed soils.

OTHER COMMON NAMES: Woad

DESCRIPTION: Dyer's Woad may be a winter annual, biennial, or a short-lived perennial. Heights of 1 to 4 feet are common. A thick tap root may penetrate to 5 feet deep. Leaves are blue-green with a whitish midrib. The bright yellow flowers bloom and are highly visible in late spring. Club-shaped seed pods each produce a single seed. As the fruits mature, they turn from green to dark brown or nearly black.

Control of these weeds is needed. Early detection and control can be done by the Daggett County Weed Department. Minimum Fee.
